

ROBERT D. CLARK HONORS COLLEGE

Degree Paths: Planning, Public Policy and Management

ARCHITECTURE and ALLIED ARTS MAJOR
Planning, Public Policy and Management (PPPM)

Student A

- Working as a research assistant at a healthcare nonprofit
- Completed a PPPM summer internship and graduated in 4 years

Student B

- Earned a Master's degree from an AAU institution, and working in an education nonprofit
 - Studied abroad, completed a PPPM summer internship and graduated in 4 years
-

NEXT STEPS

1. Meet with your CHC advisor

- a. Log into DuckWeb and go to Degree Audit to look up your advisor, or
- b. Stop by the CHC Reception Desk, or
- c. Go to any CHC faculty member you'd like

2. Meet with an advisor in your major

Undergraduate student handbooks, course information, career and advising information is located on the department of Planning, Public Policy and Management website: pppm.uoregon.edu/current-students

3. Meet at least annually with both your advisors: CHC and your PPPM major

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Robert D. Clark
Honors College

Different Paths to a Degree

Course Area

- HC History
- HC Literature
- HC Other
- HC Science
- Major College
- Major Department
- Study Abroad
- UO Electives

Major

Planning, Public Policy and Management

Major: Planning, Public Policy and Management

