

ROBERT D. CLARK HONORS COLLEGE

Degree Paths: Computer and Information Science

NATURAL SCIENCE MAJOR Computer and Information Science

Student A

- Working as a software developer
  - Entered UO with high school transfer hours and graduated in three years (CIS with a mathematics minor)
-

NEXT STEPS

1. Meet with your CHC advisor

- a. Log into DuckWeb and go to Degree Audit to look up your advisor, or
- b. Stop by the CHC Reception Desk, or
- c. Go to any CHC faculty member you'd like

2. Meet with an advisor in your major

Policies and procedures for majoring or minoring in CIS as well as year-by-year pathways to earning a Bachelor's degree in CIS can be found on the Computer and Information Science department website:

www.cs.uoregon.edu/Education/Pathways.php

www.cs.uoregon.edu/Education/Policies.php

Faculty advising is also available: www.cs.uoregon.edu/Education/Advising.php

3. Meet at least annually with both your advisors: CHC and your Computer and Information Science major

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Robert D. Clark
Honors College

Different Paths to a Degree

Area

- HC History
- HC Other
- Major Department
- College Scholars
- HC Literature
- Major College
- UO Electives
- Major Various

Major: Various

